Our Journey

Start of a dream

Guru Nanak Vidya Bhandar trust under whose aegis the school is run was established in 1924 by late SPS Dharam Singh. The vision of the trust all along has been to empower the students with application oriented skills that have a direct relevance to both the national as well as international economic and business context. In 2005 'Sikhya- the school of learning' was started, which was the personal dream Project of Dr. Gurpreet Singh. Dr.Singh set up various educational projects and schools. The curriculum of all his projects and schools was need based, practical and the one that works towards empowering each student. The legacy and commitment to provide quality education continues further with the same commitment under the name 'Northridge International School'.

Expressing self through Performance

The Performing Arts play a vital role in building self-confidence in children while nurturing and showcasing their inherent talents. Through artistic expression, students discover their inner selves and project their creativity with confidence, inviting appreciation and admiration from others.

The diverse performing arts provide a rich platform to develop a child's aesthetic sensibility and deepen their appreciation of the finer nuances of life.

Great emphasis is placed on developing strong oratory skills among all students. Training in voice modulation, articulation, stress and intonation enables them to communicate effectively and adds depth and impact to the spoken word. Dance, the most sublime form of creative expression, holds a special place in school functions and ceremonies. Students explore a variety of dance forms and experiment with creative fusions that reflect originality, grace and artistic expression.

Music, both instrumental and vocal, is an integral part of the school curriculum. Students with a passion for music are provided ample opportunities to learn both Western and Indian traditions. Under the guidance of accomplished and qualified instructors, students receive training in instruments such as the Keyboard, Guitar, Sitar and Tabla, and are encouraged to showcase their talent on numerous occasions.

My child loves coming to school to meet his teachers and friends and eagerly shares what he learns each day. As parents of a Pre-Nursery student, we are extremely happy with his social and academic growth. PTMs are always insightful, with clear feedback and guidance from teachers. His transformation into a confident, kind, and respectful child is truly visible. A special thanks to Sonia ma'am for making learning joyful and engaging. Choosing Northridge School has been the right decision for our child, and we look forward to his smooth transition to the next class.
